Description

Know Your Hoods is a website designed for people who are moving or interested in knowing more about their area. The search engine helps citizens find an area tailored to their specific needs, and helps current residents getting to know places and services that they might be not be aware of yet.

Benefits

Know Your Hoods provides citizens with accurate, factual information allowing them to make a well-informed choice for their residential area. As many people migrate in Finland, and over half of migrants consider different municipalities as their new neighbourhood, this website provides a useful tool for a large group within the population.
