Description

Lefebvre Sarrut aims to connect companies and their legal, tax and accounting advisors through a unified offer of information, documentation and training services. Its mission is to help professionals improve their effectiveness by providing them with services to help them develop and extend their knowledge. Lefebvre Sarrut is aimed at all public and private professionals, companies and consultants – whether they work in law, human resources or financial management.

Benefits

Digitalisation and open data use in law is still new and Lefebvre Sarrut is innovative in developing new ways of working in law.

The logo for Lefebvre Sarrut features the company name in a blue, sans-serif font. The word 'LEFEBVRE' is on the top line and 'SARRUT' is on the bottom line. A red diagonal slash is positioned above the 'V' in 'LEFEBVRE' and below the 'A' in 'SARRUT'.How open data is used

Lefebvre Sarrut uses legal open data to give better legal advice to their clients by helping them expanding their knowledge. The company collaborates with tech legal partners, such as Data Legal Drive. The goal is to help legal firms and companies comply with GDPR in a world of digital transformation. Thereby, Lefebvre Sarrut helps companies and the government with data anonymisation of legal open data.
