

URL <http://lostiumproject.com/>

Quick facts

 Company:	Lostium project
 Sector:	Science & Technology
 Product / service:	Company
 Type of data:	National and local open data portals
 Origin:	Spain

Benefits

-  The Lostium project develops apps that facilitate access to public services. For example, thank to Mapcesible, citizens can access information about accessible places such as beaches, public places and monuments.

How open data is used

-  The company develops applications based on open data such as traffic incidents, gas stations in Spain and municipal markets.

Description

-  Lostium project develops applications and digital tools to make life easier for citizens and solve specific problems of the companies that hire their services.
-  They also develop their own projects: they like to explore the social use of technology through collaborative projects, creating communities and integrating social networks.